ABOUT US

Our school was founded in 2004 by Angelo Russica, a senior fashion designer & consultant who had worked with many high-profile designers such as Gianni Versace, Domenico Dolce, Stefano Gabbana, Giorgio Correggiari, and companies such as Versace, Barbas, Induyco – El Corte Inglés in Madrid, Gruppo Marzotto, Miroglio Vestebene, Gruppo Max Mara, and King Co. in Japan.

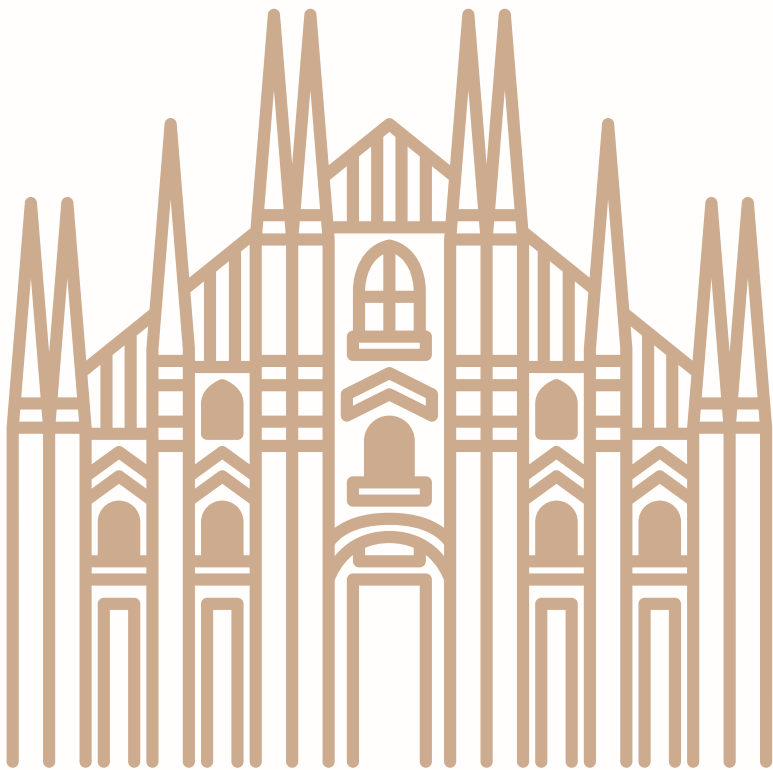

With this rich working experience & skill, he decided to share his knowledge with future talents in the fashion industry through our intensive short-term courses with a realistic & personalized approach for the most efficient yet rich learning experience. Our courses are also designed with flexible timing to allow people from anywhere, any background, any age, any profession, or anyone to learn. Our highly international environment and Italian perspective learning also permit students to get an intercultural exchange that they will never forget. The courses are available on-site and online.

WHY STUDY FASHION IN MILAN ?

Milan is considered one of the global fashion capitals and is home to many prestigious fashion schools and fashion houses. In addition to traditional high fashion, Milan is also home to a diverse range of design styles and emerging talent, making it an ideal location for studying fashion. The city is also known for its strong tradition in the textile and textile manufacturing industry, which is an important aspect of the fashion industry.

WHY STUDY WITH MILAN FASHION CAMPUS ?

Milan Fashion Campus focuses on short-term courses that are highly personalized based on each student's goals. Our main goal is to impart our knowledge and offer you a true experience of Italian culture and fashion.

Our institute offers an international environment with students from over the world. This provides intercultural exchange where attendees can expand their vision of the world and experience new cultures that will stimulate inspiration while immersing themselves in Italian culture.

WHY STUDY FASHION SHORT COURSES?

There are several reasons why someone may choose to Study Fashion through Short Courses:

Flexibility: Short courses allow students to learn at their own pace and schedule, as they are typically not as time-consuming as full-time degree programs.

Specialization: Short courses allow students to focus on a specific area of fashion, such as styling or fashion marketing, rather than a general overview of the fashion industry.

Networking: Short courses often provide opportunities for students to connect with industry professionals and build their professional networks.

Professional development: Short courses can be a great way for professionals already working in the fashion industry to develop new skills and stay current with trends and changes in the field.

Cost-effective: Short courses tend to be less expensive than degree programs, making them an accessible and cost-effective option for those interested in studying fashion.

Try before deciding: Short courses can be a good way for students to test the waters and determine if they want to pursue a full-time degree program in fashion.
